Y. M. C. A.

At a regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association the following resolutions were adopted:
"WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father has deemed it best to remove from our midst our much esteemed and loved brother, Rev. Samuel W. Duffield, who was to us the protector of our association. We therefore humbly submit to His divine will feeling assured that everything that we do for good to that brother who loved God, Resolved, that we herewith tender to his beloved family our heartfelt Christian sympathy, feeling that they are in the hands of God who doeth all things well, ever bearing in our memory the kind and loving ties which connected us with their beloved while on earth.
Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be tendered to his bereaved family. Also that a copy of the above be inserted in the Bloomfield CITIZEN.
Signed by the Committee for the Association.

Opening of the New Building of the Y. M. C. U.

On Tuesday evening, June 7th, the rooms of the Young Men's Catholic Union were formally opened. It was expected that the Reverend Bishop of the Diocese would be present but he was unavoidably detained, and in his stead Father Doran, of Belleville, performed the pleasing task. The friends commenced gathering about eight o'clock and in a short while the house was comfortably filled. All were enthusiastic about the place, upstairs and downstairs.
Music was provided in the gymnasium and the young folks were not idle in enjoying it. About nine the Reverend visitor took a position at the head of this room, the largest in the building, and made his congratulatory remarks which were listened to and appreciated. He put all in mind that the building was a lasting monument of which they might be proud in their generation and in generations to come, and that it certainly was a monument for the town itself to be proud of, and that if the other denominations were more energetic and did as well, there would be less known of beer shops and kindred resorts, and that the Association must draw in all the Catholic young men of the town, and benefit them in so doing, etc.
The Reverend gentleman was then taken through the building and found laid out in one of the rooms upstairs, a very comfortable and pleasant. All the visitors were served to their content, and after more music departed well satisfied with their evening and with their entertainers.
The building is situated on Bloomfield avenue opposite Liberty street—a neat, substantial frame structure. The rooms are not quite finished yet. The first floor is divided into a reception and reading room, a billiard room and gymnasium. The upper rooms consist of a meeting room; janitor's rooms, and a large room with ante-room attached, rented to the Benevolent Legion of the church.

A Pleasant Gathering.

A church social, or reunion of the members and friends of Christ church, was held on the evening of June 7th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Camp. Nothing of the sort of the camp and hostess was so well made it most successful and delightful affair.
The German Quartette from the Seminary gave some excellent selections which were very finely rendered, and elicited much praise from their hearers.
Mr. Federit entertained the young people with lively dancing music until a reasonable hour, which, with the refreshments provided by the ladies, added another pleasant memory to the kindly good will and unity which pervades the church circle.

Church Notes.

On Sunday, the 19th inst., Rev. Mr. Burr, a former pastor of the Park M. E. church, will exchange pulpits with Rev. Mr. Munroe. Rev. Mr. Burr is at present stationed at Paterson.
Elaborate preparations for the celebration of Children's Day are being carried on at the Park M. E. church. The morning exercises will consist of singing and recitations by the children. Flower birds and a fountain will be interesting features of the occasion. In the evening the subject of the pastors discourse will be "Spiritual lessons gathered from childhood."

In the first Presbyterian church, Children's Day will be observed in a manner appropriate to the occasion. The service will be of especial interest to the children.
In the Watsessing M. E. Church exercises of unusual interest are being prepared for Children's Day.
Rev. J. V. Shurtz, of Carthage, N. Y., will occupy the pulpit of Westminster Church, on Sunday.

School Trustees' Meeting.

The regular meeting of the School Board was held in the Trustees' room, at the High School Building, on Tuesday evening, the 24th.
It was decided to close the school on Friday, the 24th.
The graduating exercises will take place on the evening of the 24th, and will probably be held in the First Presbyterian church.
The School Clerk having taken the census, reports sixteen hundred and seventy children between the ages of five and eighteen.

—Mr. John C. Graham, a former business man of the town, has accepted a position in New York. He will, however, do business as heretofore at his old office, Carl's building.
—On Wednesday evening at the 6.59 train was leaving Bloomfield, a man, under the influence of liquor, attempted to board it. He was restrained by the brakeman, but not before he had nearly fallen under the wheels.
—The fair held under the auspices of Excelsior Hose Co. was a success. The handsome pictures which were to be voted for by the friends of the different companies, were won by Essex Hook and Ladder Co., by a large majority. The quilt was voted to Miss Ramsch.
—At the regular meeting of the Bloomfield Hat Finishers' Association, the following officers were elected: President, Edward J. Maginly, Jr.; Vice President, John Hoffman; Secretary, Chas. Durning; Treasurer, Victor Weedon; Financial Committee, Chas. Flanagan, John Lair, Herman Frank.
—Last Sunday evening, while a number of young gentlemen from Bloomfield were taking a walk in the vicinity of the Glen Ridge depot, they were attacked by the gang of Montclair toughs who make that portion of the town their place of Sunday rendezvous. They escaped only by flight, and were stopped at the quarry, there to recover their breath and courage. More constables, please!
—Last Tuesday there appeared from the window of the Bloomfield Wheelmen, a relic of the last campaign. It consisted of the suit of one of the Bloomfield Battery, supplemented with a broomslick and a blackened helmet for a face. For a time it gave quite some amusement, but was finally hauled in, to the amusement of the spectators.
—Last Sunday evening a Constable Cadmus was patrolling his beat, a German who had lost himself in the intricacies of Glen Ridge, approached him and sought information. Now Mr. Cadmus, being unable to discourse in the Teutonic dialect, invited the man to accompany him to the house of Mr. Chalois, the gardener on Liberty street, where it was ascertained that he had been separated from his brother. He obtained some information and went off apparently happy.
—Last Wednesday morning a lady was walking along Belleville avenue, near the Cemetery, when a man suddenly sprang upon her and tore off her water proof cloak. Her screams attracted the attention of Mr. John Smith, and he, with two other men, hurried to her assistance. The assailant fled. Through a misunderstanding of the direction indicated by the lady the pursuers took the wrong track. Owing to the excitement into which the lady was thrown by the occurrence she was unable to give a description of her assailant.

—On Decoration Day the Mystic base ball club of this place, played the Arlington club upon the latter's ground, and were defeated by the score of 14 to 8. One of the features of the game was the brilliant manner in which the Mystics whitewashed their opponents in the last five innings. This Saturday the Mystics play the Montclairs at Montclair.

—A series of croquet games for the championship of the Morris Neighborhood was played on Decoration Day upon the grounds of Messrs. A. T. Morris, R. Madison and Dr. V. L. Lockwood. In the final game Miss Emily J. Lockwood and Miss Gussie Madison were pitted against Mrs. E. W. Baldwin and Mr. Wm. A. Baldwin. The game was close. All the balls became rovers. Amid enthusiastic applause and intense excitement the players carried on their mimic warfare with varying success. There were many slips, some "scratches" and not a few fine shots. Fortune finally smiled upon the second team, who were rewarded with a pair of golden (?) cups tied with bows of ribbon as trophies of their victory. The evening was spent in bowling.

32nd day of June, 1887, at 1 o'clock P. M., at the office of Smith & Perry, in Bloomfield, New Jersey, certain claims, viz., notes made by Robert Peck and wife to Hiram M. Rhodes and Edward P. Hatch, and assigned to M. E. Furman, amounting to $7,000 and secured interest thereon, secured by mortgages and real estate, viz., about fourteen acres of land in Bloomfield, New Jersey, a full description of which may be had by applying to said Smith & Perry.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.—To Martha E. Deane, Plaintiff, against Abraham Voorhees, and Walter Voorhees.

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein Charles C. Voorhees is complainant, and you and others are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, demur, or answer to the complainant's bill, on or before twenty-seventh day of July next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.
The said bill is filed to obtain a decree that Margaret Voorhees and Walter Voorhees have no estate or interest in the estate of John F. Voorhees, deceased, or any part thereof, and that Theodore Little and George E. Voorhees, surviving executors of John F. Voorhees, deceased, may have and pay over to complainant that portion of the estate of John F. ### Comments of the Press on Good Roads.

Congressman Phelps has a strong prejudice in favor of good roads, and he never lets an opportunity slip to display this peculiar trait of character. No section of Bergen county has roads half so fine as the smooth highways and private thoroughfares (all open to the public) which skirt and run through Mr. Phelps' broad domain, the same being the garden spot of Jersey. At the late road meeting in this district $1,000 was voted, when Mr. Phelps announced that if the voters would increase the sum by $200, he would add $300 from his own pocket, and thus complete a place of desired macadamizing. It was done. If the farmers could be brought to understand the value of good roads, and could be induced to keep the roadsides free from brush, they would be greatly benefited.—HACKENSACK REPUBLICAN.
If tenants are to be secured houses must be built: good roads and sidewalks must be laid, and every method of social enjoyment made to minister to the comfort and happiness of the new-comers. A live town will have many friends. A way ought to be found to provide them with pleasant homes as fast as they arrive.—Bloomfield Citizen.
